 URBAN STRINGS
 COLUMBUS 2022
 SUMMER CAMP
 At
 Columbus State Community College

June is African American Music Appreciation Month

Urban Strings Columbus will hold its summer camp which will focus on music by African American Women composers and arrangers.
Our finale concert will feature that music.

We have 3 high school graduates and several college graduates who we will honor by awarding the high school graduates a Dr. William & Geneva Wheatley Scholarship. The college graduates will receive a Dr. William & Geneva Wheatley Award.

We will honor former city councilwoman Priscilla Tyson by awarding her "The Carolyn Utz Patron Of the Arts Award"
Carolyn Utz was a teacher in the Columbus City Schools and she also played the Double Bass. She was the first African American, as well as, the first female double bass string player with the Columbus Philharmonic Orchestra and it's successor, the Columbus Symphony.
